Brother Branham said...

Here not long ago, Billy and I was going down the road, driving. Some colored boys come down the road, and they were driving fast, and they'd sideswiped a car and turned around and around and around, and threw boys all over the road; and one little fellow was pinned under the car with his back laying against the car. The boys jumped out and started to raise it up. He said, "Oh, please don't, my back is breaking. Don't. You'll kill me. You'll kill me. Don't do it."

And they said, "Oh, we've got to get it off of you; it's catching afire."

Said, "Don't move it, you're mashing me to death. Don't do it. Don't do it."

I hollered under there, "Son, are you a Christian?"

He said, "No, sir."

I said, "You'd better pray."

He said, "Yes, sir."

The sixth sense went to work, walked right around behind the car, and I'll never know till the judgment, but all of a sudden, that car flicked over and was off of him, and he jumped up and was all right. What was it? "A present Help in the time of trouble."

A young colored lady was driving a car in the road, a new Plymouth, about four hundred miles on it. She'd been driving a pretty good speed. And I seen the car. It drove its crankshaft all the way into the tree. Billy and I stopped. There'd been a snowy, slick road ahead of us, but it was dry there. And the girl... The wind was blowing so hard, up in Minnesota, till it blowed the car off. You remember it, Billy? I run down there to her. And there she's setting there; she said, "Oh, I'm dying. I'm dying." They called the ambulance.

The ambulance come, and they had a dead man laying in the back of the ambulance. Said, "I can't take her."

And so a farmer said, "Well, send somebody else quick; the woman is a dying."

I walked up there, and I said, "Lady, just a minute."

She said, "Oh, don't touch me, sir. Don't touch me. My back."

I said, "Lady, are you a Christian?" She looked at me. And I said, "I'm a minister of the Gospel. If you're dying, how is it with you and God?" She said, "Sir, I want to be right now."

And the sixth sense went to work. The power of God came down. She could walk out of the car without anybody helping her. The power of God present. "The very present Help in a time of trouble."

We walk by faith. We live by faith, "The just shall live by faith." We must live that way.

A Super Sense 59-1227

Lord,
help me today.
No matter what I face I won't let go of your hand.
Amen.

Help is just a prayer away

*God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed,
and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.*
